THE MINDWORKS APPROACH Continuous Business Improvement

To remain competitive in today's market, your company's technology must support its business processes—not the other way around. That's what the Continuous Business Improvement Life Cycle is all about. It's about using SAP to aid, not hinder, business unit growth. It's about fluidly aligning functional processes with IT, not just for the present but into the future.

Working solely in the SAP market, we provide best practice solutions to organizations of all sizes. MindWorks can help you:

- Develop and implement SAP strategies
- Improve business processes
- Provide expert technical support
- Learn through customized workshops
- Reduce Total Cost of Ownership

PROJECT MANAGEMENT A successful partnership

MindWorks will leverage the abilities of your internal team to smoothly guide your SAP development project from beginning to end—from the planning and design stages through implementation and administration. We'll help assemble the team, define the objectives, develop resource plans, determine timelines and policies, provide tracking and reporting mechanisms—and ensure that the deployment is done right.

Our clients come to MindWorks for project management expertise because of our proven ability to deliver on time and on budget. We'll work with you to implement and upgrade SAP systems, consolidate the SAP infrastructure, develop and manage global SAP support organizations, standardize IT service management processes and deploy new SAP technologies.

BUSINESS CONSULTING Optimizing your business processes

SAP is a leading ERP solution, but technology alone can't fix a faulty process. Whether you're converting from legacy systems to SAP, mapping process flows for a new business area, retooling to deal with reorganization or seeking to adapt key business processes to the SAP environment, MindWorks business consulting can provide a solution.

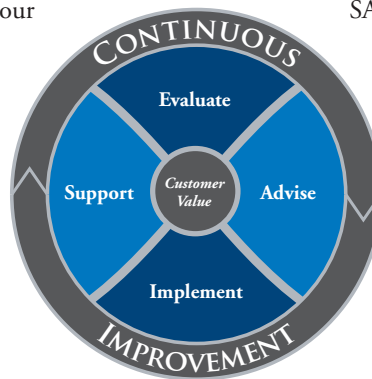

MindWorks business consultants specialize in all major SAP modules, using both proprietary and industry proven tools to capture processes. We provide testing, documentation and remote or on-site support so that when you go live, everyone is on board and comfortable.

TECHNICAL CONSULTING Providing experienced developers and administrators

Most managers cringe at the thought of inexperienced developers working on their SAP system. You won't have that problem with us. MindWorks' pool of technical consultants, ABAP developers and Basis administrators are seasoned pros who bring unparalleled skills to your technical challenges.

Working with your technical team, MindWorks will create a stable, secure and available SAP architecture and provide expert administration to manage it. Whether you need SAP to integrate seamlessly with a third-party application, want to customize a report, install or upgrade a system, or roll out a new SAP solution, our developers and administrators can handle the job.

MindWorks is one of the few mid-sized firms in the SAP market to offer the full lifecycle of SAP implementation and support services to clients.
